

Women's British Legion

Penzance is hoping to add its name to the list of 60 branches of the Women's Section in the County at a public meeting to be held at the British Legion Headquarters, 3, Market Place, Penzance, at 7.30 p.m. on Thursday, March 20. The speaker will be Mrs. M. Ford, the hon. county secretary of St. Ives, who will outline the aims, ideals and organisation of a branch.

Transcribed from The Cornishman, 13th March 1947