

REMEMBRANCE DAY, NOV. 11.

Sir,—At a meeting held at the Ivy Leaf Club, Penzance, on Tuesday last, it was unanimously decided that the correct time and place to hold a service in memory of our immortal dead, was at the War Memorial, whereon the names of our Comrades are engraved.

We are the Dead, short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Field.

Therefore at 10.45 a.m. we shall hold our service there. Failing the churches and chapels joining us, we shall conduct the service ourselves.

I am sure it would cause no inconvenience to anyone if our churches and chapels commenced their usual service at 11.15 instead of 11 o'clock.—Yours faithfully,

J. I. ROBERTS.

Penzance British Legion.
